To give you reliable and good advice, you need to provide us with the following information:

1. Copies of pay stubs received in the last 6 months. If you don't keep those records the payroll department at our work probably can provide them to you. We need this information to determine your average income for the means test. The Court requires that your last 60 days of pay stubs be filed with your case. We also need evidence of all sources of income in the past 6 months, including wages, rental income, interest income, or cash jobs.
2. The correct legal description to any real estate you have any interest in. The deed, contract for deed, abstract or certificate of title will have the correct legal description, your real estate tax statement will not. In addition, we may also need a copy of your current mortgage and note. If you have the wrong legal description you will have title problems with the real estate in the future and it will be costly to straighten it out. Please bring the most recent tax statement.
3. Copies of your tax returns for the past two years along with all of your schedules and W-2's. We also need to know your total individual gross income for the past two years. Your W-2 or 1099 forms are a good source for that information.
4. A list of creditors along with a copy of each of the monthly statements. If collection agencies or attorneys are involved, please bring all correspondence and/or other documentation from them. This also includes student loans or tax statements.
5. A list of co-signers names and addresses.
6. Copies of all 401K, Pension or Profit Sharing statements. Please bring any outstanding loan balances totals. Copies of any interest in a 529 account or educational account.
7. Copies of all titles to vehicles, boats, ATV, etc.
8. If you have been divorced in the last 6 years, a copy of your divorce decree. The name, address, and telephone number of any person or state agency to whom the debtor owes back child or spousal support or makes current child or spousal support payments, and any and all supporting documents.
9. Copies of any insurance policies either whole policies with cash value or term policies.
10. Credit Counseling: Must be completed prior to filing your case
(www.atlawhelp.com) - Course 1 (cost of $15.00)
